Linda's Lines

Just a little note to say, have a Happy Holiday.

Our friends and family we hold dear, and share with them another year.

Years are gifts from God above, so share with others, the gift of love.

Thank you for sharing through our "Joy Drive".

We will be bringing our "bounty" to Camp Pendleton after the December 12 meeting, so there is still time donate to the families. We are adding gift cards and wrapping supplies this year.

Keep safe this season.

God Bless all of you. See you next year

Linda

positive aspects of the Holiday season. Regardless of your secular or spiritual beliefs, this is the time of year that we get to appreciate and enjoy friends and family.

This year I get to celebrate the season with my son and his lovely wife who are coming out to visit from Norfolk, VA. My awesome son is serving our nation as an electrician in the United States Navy. In case you are unsure of my opinion, I am really proud of him and his wonderful wife. Don't forget that military spouses sacrifice for our nation as well.

The holiday season is upon us so I want to take this opportunity wish everyone a Merry Christmas, a Happy Chanukah, a Fabulous Festivus, or a wonderful... whatever you choose to celebrate. It is great that we all have the freedom in this country to choose what we celebrate and how we choose to do so.

Make Time to Attend a General Meeting

Bring a friend to the next General Meeting and one or both of you could win a few bucks. At the last General Meeting, Rich Hall won the $25 door prize. Had he attended the meeting, Steven Peak would have won the $500 Attendance Prize. The next General Meeting is 12/12/2019. If you don't show up, you can't win.

Every year I try to come up with a cute and/or clever way to encourage all of us to enjoy the holiday season while poking fun at political correctness. The point is that we should all enjoy the

Junior Rifle (11/17/2019)

On November 17th, the Junior Marksmanship Program held the last rifle event of the year. We also had our third annual Veterans Day ceremony to honor our veterans and first responders. Once the crowd was assembled, Kestrin "Hurricane" Walsh asked all of veterans to come to the front of the stage. She then asked all of the first responders to join the vets in front of stage, as well. She explained that the Junior marksmanship program believes that our first responders deserve their own day of recognition, but until that happens, we would like to recognize them on this day. The event started off with the presentation of the colors by the Orange Glen High School NJROTC color guard. This was followed by the singing of "It's a grand old flag" and the National Anthem by Danielle and Payton Prince. The event ended with the retirement of the colors and the closing remarks by AJ Wagle. AJ again thanked everyone for coming and expressed our gratitude for the service of our veterans and first responders.

The Junior Marksmanship Program would like to thank the Orange Glen High School NJROTC color guard for their presentation of the colors. The cadets did a great job and we were very proud to have them join us as we honored our veterans and first responders. The color guard included, Cadet Seaman Mia Nguyen, Cadet Chief Petty Officer Trent Kuykindall, Cadet Seaman Samantha Moody, Cadet Seaman Daniel Alvarez and Master Sergeant Keith Porter.

After the ceremony, we kicked off the Junior Rifle event. We had over 60 shooters with many being first time shooters. We also had some special guests. Some Navy Corpsman from the First Marine Division came by to coach our juniors. But not only did they coach, they helped in the kitchen to get everyone fed as well as helped to clean the rifles after the event. These sailors were genuinely happy to help wherever they were needed. They set the example for others to follow. As the Line Chief, I can tell you that I love having Corpsman present on the firing line. These are the guys that save lives for a living, if something happens, these are the guys that I want with me. As a Marine, I have a very deep respect for Navy Corpsman. Too many times I have seen them do miracles to save their patients. The Corpsman that joined us include, HM3 Darrell Sagun, HM2 Joseph Alvis, HM2 Aaron Phoebe, HM2 Analaura Caballero, HM2 Ryan Yohn, HM2 Jose Caballero, HM2 Eduardo Ledesma

Thanks to All Who Make it Work

As we close the 2019 Junior marksmanship season,

I would like to thank everyone that makes the program possible. The shoot chairs can do all kinds of planning and prepping, but without the help of the many volunteers, we couldn't do the amazing things that we do. From the coaches on the firing line to the kitchen staff and Rustler on the BBQ to Kimmie on the sign-in table and the guys doing the scoring, the Junior program is truly a team effort. There is no doubt in my mind that we are making a difference in the lives of these kids and the impact will be seen for many years to come.

I would also like to recognize the efforts of our own Junior Coaching Program. These young adults not only help coach and do the safety briefs, but they also help with all other aspects of the program. Personally, I am very proud of our program and the things that we have achieved through the program.

The Junior Marksmanship Program would like to wish everyone a Merry Christmas and a safe and happy New Year.

TRAP CORNER

12- Gauge / 20- Gauge / 28- Gauge – What is it?

The gauge (or commonly bore in British English) of a firearm is a unit of measurement used to express the inner diameter (bore diameter) of the barrel. Gauge is determined from the weight of a solid sphere of lead that will fit the bore of the firearm and is expressed as the multiplicative inverse of the sphere's weight as a fraction of a pound, e.g., a one-twelfth pound lead ball fits a 12-gauge bore. Thus, there are twelve 12-gauge balls per pound, etc. The term is related to the measurement of cannons, which were also measured by the weight of their iron round shot; an 8-pounder would fire an 8 lb (3.6 kg) ball.

New Saturday Schedule for Trap

Because the sun sets earlier and the weather is colder at night, we are going to change Saturday Trap to begin at 2:00 instead of 4:00 PM. This will only be until Daylight Saving Time returns (3/8/2020). The good news is that we all get to shoot while it is still warm. The bad news is that we will need to reconsider the Punch Card Shoot and the Century Shoot. This will NOT affect the Pot Shoot, only 16-Yard Trap. Stay tuned for more details.

Junior Trap Help

Junior Trap is back up and running thanks to the efforts from Chris Cote and Curt Summers as well as many great volunteers from the Trap community. The new format of the program is generating a lot of interest in our sport with the younger generation. The volunteers that are helping to run the event and coach the kids are what make it all possible. The kids have noticed that many of the coaches are regular Saturday Trap shooters and they appreciate the expertise of the coaches as well as their generosity with their time. If you want to participate as a coach, please contact Chris Cote. He will give you all of the details.

My dream is to have a solid team of youth Trap shooters to help represent us at InterClub competitions and we are taking the right steps to make that happen. Not only will the kids bring trophies to EF&GA but they will also become participants and coaches for the next generation. They might even vote in this state so be kind to them.

Turkey Shoot (11/23/2019)

We had a very fun and successful Turkey Shoot this year. We all had a great time with a little less serious format and some different types of Trap shooting. Later in the day I had numerous people approach me and thank me for running a fun event that seemed to go off without a hitch. The fact of the matter is that I really can't take much credit for how well it all happened. There were some key people who made my job a lot easier. Without them, there would have been a lot of standing around waiting for squads and scorekeepers to keep it all moving along. I want to take this opportunity to thank them for all that they did:

Tim Hoy – Kept the paperwork, punch card sales, and squad sheets in good order. At the end of the event we worked together to make sure that the math and documentation were all correct.

Chris Cote – Kept the Trap squads going and made sure that that Trap machines didn't run out of targets in the middle of a round.

Austin Cote – Did a lot of scorekeeping and helped to keep the Trap machines full of targets.

Mark Eller – Set up the machines first thing in the morning and helped by scoring throughout the event.

All that I did was pick up the turkeys, stuffing, and cranberry sauce. Everyone else just made me look good. Please be sure to thank Tim, Chris, Austin, and Mark if see them in passing.

How to place a classified ad in the newsletter

Please help to keep the classified section easy to read and well organized. There is no cost as long as you are an EF&GA member in good standing. Classified ads run for ONE newsletter (one month). If you want to repeat an ad for another month (with price adjustments, etc...) simply re-submit the ad request via e-mail.

Please submit requests for classified ads via email to newsletter@escondidofishandgame.com and be sure to double-check for spelling and grammar errors.

Members Only are allowed to submit Classified advertisements. Your Membership Number must be included with any advertisement request so that we can properly vet the submission before it is published. The Membership Number will NOT appear in the advertisement. Your Membership Number is on your membership badge on the same side as your photo.

No Illegal Transactions may be advertised in this newsletter. It is now illegal to sell ammunition in California without either going through an FFL or a licensed ammunition reseller. EF&GA cannot facilitate any illegal commerce of a state regulated commodity. This is also why firearm sales should include a phrase similar to Buyer pays DROS when advertising the sale of a firearm.

It may sound obvious but requests for classifieds are frequently received with not enough information to be useful to a reader.

There are 5 main components of a classified ad:

Category – Most classifieds fall into one of 3 categories, 'For Sale', 'Wanted', or 'Lost & Found'.

Subject/Title – This will appear in bold in the advertisement. This should be short (2 or 3 words) and concise.

Description – This is the body of the advertisement and can be a few sentences but not more than a paragraph. Abbreviations appear cryptic and are not recommended unless they are well known acronyms.

Price – A specific dollar amount as well as qualifiers give the reader important information. For example, "$600 or Best Offer, Buyer pays DROS, Will consider trades"

Contact Info – This should be a name AND a phone number (including area code) and/or an e-mail address.

RANGEMASTER SOUND OFF

By: Jay Zimmitt – CRSO
crsojay@escondidofishandgame.com

It's that time of the year – Holiday Sales and that includes Firearms!

I am sure that a lot of you are using that “excuse” to get one (remember only one firearm every 30 days now)! I have a special 1911 (45 acp) in the works to use for Cowboy Wild Bunch matches. :-)

One of my wish-list items (can I expense this?) is body armor to wear at the range during this time of the year when all of you show up with your brand new rifle/pistol/shotgun and don't know how to use it...

I usually do not have this problem with the female shooters because they will actually read the manual, watch some YouTube videos and ask questions before stuffing a live round into the chamber and pulling the trigger to see what will happen.

On the other hand us men don't need to read no stupid manual, we are born with our DNA infused with all knowledge regarding firearms! Just ask me ---

Regardless of your gender, please learn your new firearm before you come to the range with it. Take some time to actually read the manual (at least look at the pictures), watch some YouTube videos on how to use it, clean it, take it apart and ask questions if you are not sure. Taking one of our NRA Rifle, Pistol, or Shotgun classes is a good way to learn how to use it.

Get some snap caps (not live ammo) and manipulate the firearm's action to get comfortable with it before you try it with live ammo. Oh yeah, please make sure you get the correct ammo for your particular firearm.

Another wish-list item again this year (must have been bad last year) is a taser with a very long wire! I was cooking (controlled fire) burgers for Jr. Rifle and noticed that the Cold Lights were on at the Pistol range and a gentlemen was carrying his target back to the firing line just as another person was picking up their pistol on the firing line!!

I was by myself and had a hard decision to make; deal with the Pistol range issue first and let the burgers burn or save the burgers and then deal with the Pistol range issue! What would you do?

You will be happy to know I saved the burgers (I am not upsetting the kitchen ladies), grabbed someone to watch the grill and then went and had a “conversation” with those folks on the Pistol range.

I am going to propose a new rule when the range lights are on - everyone put their hands in their pockets and just stand there! Sigh

I want to wish everyone a Safe and Happy Holidays regardless of your skin color, nationality or what/who you worship!

Cold Range:

- Blue Blinking Lights ON
- DO NOT handle Firearms & Equipment
- Handle Targets
- Sweep up brass behind the Yellow and in front of the Red line

OK TO GO DOWN RANGE

Hot Range:

- Blue Blinking Lights OFF
- Handle Firearms & Equipment
- OK to Load/Unload Vehicle
- Sweep up brass behind Red line

DO NOT GO DOWN RANGE

BLACK POWDER NEWS

By Garth Warner

Ho Ho Ho and Holiday Greetings to all. Tis the season to be jolly, yada, yada, yada... Not too jolly this month as I reached way outside of my comfort zone and tried to shoot a Combat Pistol match in November. Humbled is the appropriate result. Them new fangled auto loaders shoot a might different than the muzzle loading pistols that I am used too. Now I am more determined than ever to practice a bit and try it again. The point of the above is to encourage you to try something different once in a while. It may be humbling the first time you try, but it opens up new vistas into our Association's activities. You might also find something that you like.

December Silhouette Contest - December will be our last Long Range contest for the year with targets at 100, 125, and 150 yards. Since the long range contests are sometimes lightly attended, (and this contest falls on December 22nd), I am going to add some incentive. Everyone who enters the contest gets a raffle ticket. When all off the gear is put away after the contest, we will have a drawing for three complete Christmas dinners. Each dinner will include Turkey, mashed potatoes, gravy, cranberry sauce, and a homemade pie. Enter the contest to win. (And get away from your relatives for a bit prior to the Holidays) Ho Ho Ho!

January Silhouette Contest - January starts the rotation with a Super Short Range contest. Targets will be at 25, 50, and 75 yards. If you read what I wrote above about trying something new,... this contest may be an opportunity to do just that. (As an aside, after your initial purchase of equipment, BP shooting is one of the least expensive shooting sports...) You can contact Garth Warner at Gwarner@cox.net for more information.

Junior Muzzle Loading – This event is scheduled for December 1st. If you have a son or daughter, this is an excellent opportunity to get them out to the range to try another aspect of shooting sports. We also take adults who want to give it a try, after the kids. No excuses! Try something new. We will even take despondent Cowboy Action guys who have never shot beyond 10 feet. Contact Ren Everett for details.

Rules Change - For November and December this year we are allowing rifle shooters in the Open and Primitive categories to use Cross Sticks, (or Buffalo Sticks), for targets at 125 and 150 yards.

Bullseye League - Organized by SPAR, (Society of Primitive American Riflemen), this contest shoots paper targets on a rotational basis with Rile, Pistol, or Trade Gun. You DO NOT have to be a member of SPAR to shoot this contest. Bullseye League contest is run on the first Sunday of each month. Watch the calendar for scheduling, or contact Patrick Watson at patwatson1969@hotmail.com for details. Shooting paper targets lets you see where you missed...

AOL - Archers Of the Lake is a primitive archery contest that occurs once a month immediately following the Bullseye League BP shoot. Categories include Recurve, Primitive, Longbow, and Horsebow. Contact David Premetz at slixgunr@yahoo.com for more information.

NRA Metallic Cartridge Reloading Class (1/25/2020)

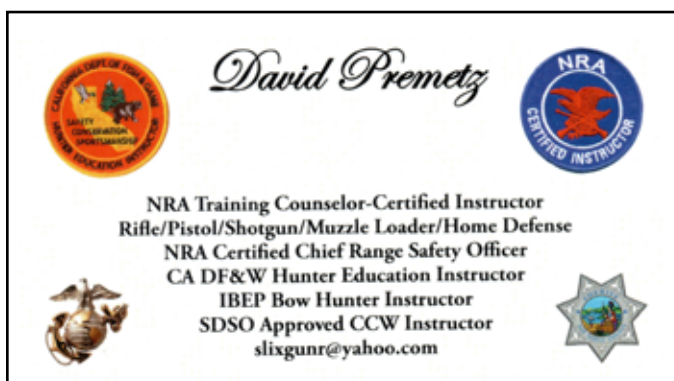

Although ammunition is now plentiful, there are California restrictions (such as Prop. 63, passed, now SB1235) that have since been generated to hinder such purchases both in-store and eliminated on-line. This obstacle can be overcome through acquired skills and knowledge. Presented is the opportunity to learn basic reloading techniques that will allow you to produce timely, consistent and accurate ammunition while receiving NRA certified reloading instruction is available on January 25th, 2020.
